

Award winning multi-instrumentalist, composer and singer-songwriter Bruce Graybill got his start in professional music as the lead Guitarist touring with 'The Ebony Blue Show Band.' In 1982 he was introduced to Mandolin and Winfield, later marrying into the family that introduced him to both. Awards include two first place wins, two third place and nine top five placements in Mandolin at the National Flat-pick Championships (Winfield). He is an endorsing artist for Montana Lutherie and a former President of The Classical Mandolin Society of America Inc. Bruce was recently inducted into the Atlanta Country Music Hall of Fame and received their Education Award for 2019.

Bruce currently performs solo, with the duo 'Cordas Eclética' and 'Hot Strings Trio.' He also teaches privately, conducts Mandolin workshops and is a frequent instructor at Steve Kaufman's Acoustic Kamp. Two solo CDs: Mandocranium, an acoustic string Fantasy and The Bell Effect, round out his discography of recordings by several other artists.
